At the European School Bergen, our aim is to promote excellent attendance and reduce absences.
Students at hall to work/check in at the start of period 1 (09.00am). Before going to the Study Hall, they must report to an educational advisor.

Each unjustified absent period will result in the student checking in with an Educational Adviser and doing schoolwork in the study hall for a full free period.

If this occurs too frequently, more severe action is taken according to the General Rules of the European Schools.

It is important that students come to class on time and prepared every day.

If a student is late,
